

Supported by

Government of South Australia
Training and Skills Commission

Scholarship Opportunities to attend the SACAL Conference 18 AUGUST 2017

The South Australian Council for Adult Literacy, Inc., supported by the Training and Skills Commission, is offering 10 scholarships to the SACAL Conference 2017 The Domino Effect in Adult Education: learning together and working together, 18 August 2017 at the Education Development Centre, Hindmarsh.

To be considered for this opportunity, please email the following information to info@sacal.sa.edu.au:

- Your name, mobile number and email address.
- Your place of work, volunteering and/or study, your role and number of hours per week you work/study.
- Up to 100 words explaining how you think you would benefit from attending the SACAL conference.
- Confirmation that you can attend the SACAL conference on 18 August 2017.

Who should apply:

SACAL encourages applications from people working and volunteering in adult, vocational and community education, and from those who are studying to further a career in adult education.

Special consideration will be given to volunteers, students and casual and part-time workers.

The closing date for applications is 8 August 2017. Successful applicants will be notified by 11 August 2017.

Join the South Australian Council for Adult Literacy, Inc. for

State Conference 2017

and explore how we work together and learn together in a changing vocational education environment.

The conference will include:

- An opening address by Joshua Rayner, Director, Training and Skills Commission.
- A keynote address by Louise Wignall, Education Consultant.
- A closing address by Hon. Susan Close, Minister for Education and Child Development, and Minister for Higher Education and Skills

And the following presentations & workshops:

- Self-compassion Opens the Door to Learning, presented by Alison Harker & Paul Mulroney from Community Centres SA.
- Working with numeracy skills across different vocational areas, presented by Min McHugh, Michael Oliver, from TAFESA.
- The reciprocal impact of peer mentoring, presented by Caralyn Lammis, President, SACAL.
- Co-creating for positive outcomes, presented by Andrea Rivett
- Using the Foundation Skills Professional Standards Framework as a tool for professional reflection, presented by Louise Wignall.
- With more to come

For more information:

E: info@sacal.sa.edu.au, W: sacal.sa.edu.au

TaSC and SACAL will provide up to 10 scholarships comprising full day registration and 12 month membership of SACAL. Total value is $1,400.

The conference includes morning tea and lunch.

Delegates receive a certificate of attendance.

TIME: 9.00am – 4.15pm

DATE: Friday 18 August 2017

VENUE: Education Development
Centre
Milner St, Hindmarsh

SACAL Professional Development 2017: The Domino Effect in Adult Education